Definitions

Monthly Recurring Charges: the monthly fees applicable to the Services as set forth on a Service Order (MRC);

Non-Recurring Charges: the one-time fees associated with the Services as set forth on a Service Order (NRC).

1. Term. These Terms & Conditions shall become effective upon the Effective Date, which is defined as the date of the last signature on an applicable Service Order and remain in full force and effect for as long as any Service Order remains in effect (the “Service Term”). Billing for Services shall commence on Service Commencement Date, which is defined as the date upon which Customer accepts or is deemed to have accepted Services, pursuant to Section 2 below. Upon expiration of the initial term as set out in a Service Order, the Service therein shall automatically renew on a month-to-month basis (each a “Renewal Term”) subject to price increases following the end of an initial Term until either Party terminates the Service Order with thirty (30) days’ notice to the other Party.

2. Services. Bluebird shall provide services to Customer as set forth on a Service Order submitted by Customer (“Services”). Customer shall have three (3) business days to test and accept Services after installation (“Test Period”). If within the Test Period, it is determined that the Services are not in accordance with the Service Order or the applicable service description, Customer shall provide written notice to Bluebird. Upon receipt of such notice, Bluebird shall use commercially reasonable efforts to remedy any deficiencies and will provide notice to Customer when such work is complete. Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the Services if no notice is delivered to Bluebird prior to the end of the Test Period or if Customer makes commercial use of the Services.

3. Payment Terms. Customer agrees to pay all undisputed MRC, NRC, fees and charges set forth on the Service Order (the “Fees”), which may include regulatory charges, surcharges, taxes, or third-party provider fees within thirty (30) days of the date on Bluebird’s invoice. In the event any payment is not received within thirty (30) days, Bluebird may, at its sole discretion, apply a late charge equal to the greater of $25 or .83% (or the maximum legal rate, if less) on the unpaid balance per month. If Customer does not report a dispute within thirty (30) days of the date of Bluebird’s invoice, Customer shall have waived its right to dispute that invoice. Any disputed amounts determined to be payable to Bluebird shall be due within ten (10) days of the dispute resolution. In addition to any other remedies hereunder or at law or in equity, Bluebird may suspend Services to Customer for non-payment without notice until past-due payment is made in full.

If Customer is a cryptocurrency miner purchasing Services through any Bluebird-owned data center, the following additional Payment Terms apply. Customer agrees to pay all undisputed rates, fees, and charges set forth on the Service Order (the “Fees”), which may include regulatory charges or third-party provider fees; payment is due by the 1st day of each month.

4. Regulatory Charges. Bluebird may assess Customer any regulatory fees, and federal, state, local, sales, use, utility, or other surcharges or tariffs imposed by any regulatory or governmental entities or otherwise permitted by applicable law related to the Services provided which may include, but is not limited to, fees imposed by the Federal Universal Service Fund (“FUSF”), the National Exchange Carrier Association (“NECA”) or any applicable local power company service rate, as applicable. Customer may provide Bluebird with an exemption certificate or equivalent information acceptable to the relevant regulatory authority, in which case, from the date of presentation of such certificate, Bluebird will not charge or collect the regulatory fees, surcharges, or tariffs covered by such certificate.

5. Taxes and Fees. All charges set forth in a Service Order are exclusive of, and Customer shall be responsible for and agrees to pay, any and all applicable international, federal, state and local use, excise, sales, value added, consumption, gross receipts, access, franchise and other taxes, fees, assessments, duties and surcharges (including, without limitation, any universal service fund surcharge) levied or imposed upon Bluebird or Customer in connection with the provision, sale or use of the Service, product or facility furnished to Customer and which Bluebird is required or permitted to collect from Customer (collectively referred to as “Taxes”). Customer shall not be responsible for, and Taxes will not include, taxes on Bluebird’s net income. If Customer believes it is exempt from Taxes, Customer shall provide Bluebird with a valid and duly executed exemption certificate and any other information with respect to such exemption as Bluebird may require; such certificate will be honored from the date that Bluebird receives such certificate and additional information from Customer. If any such exemption is ruled invalid by the tax or governmental authority for any reason, Customer shall reimburse Bluebird for any Taxes, including without limitation any penalties and interest, arising from or in connection with such invalid claim of exemption.

6. Access. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms & Conditions, an applicable Service Description, or a Service Order hereunder, Bluebird shall not be liable to provide the Services to Customer in the event that Bluebird is not permitted access to any location required for such Services to be performed. Accordingly, Bluebird shall have the right to terminate, without liability, any applicable Service Order with notice to Customer. Additionally, if Bluebird is charged a fee by any landlord, private location owner, or any other such entity in order to gain access or easement rights to property in order to install equipment or otherwise perform the contracted Services (“Access Fees”), Bluebird may, at its option, pass-through such fees to Customer whether or not such are stated in the original Service Order and Customer shall pay such access fees.

7. Default. Either party may terminate any Service Order (i) for the other's material breach (including non-payment) by written notice specifying in detail the nature of the breach, effective in 30 days unless the other party first cures such breach, or effective immediately if the breach is not subject to cure or (ii) in the event the other Party becomes the subject of a bankruptcy ("Default"). In the event of Customer's Default, Bluebird may suspend Services rather than terminating the Service Order, in which case, Customer must cure the Default, including the payment of all amounts currently due, prior to Services being re-instated.

8. Effects of Termination for Cause. In the event of Customer's Default, Customer shall pay all amounts due and all unpaid charges for the entire Service Term and further agrees to pay Bluebird's reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees and collection agency fees) incurred enforcing its rights under these Terms & Conditions and the Service Order. In the event of Bluebird's Default, Customer may terminate Services without penalty. Bluebird shall not be responsible for any failure or interruption in Services caused by an act or omission of a third party furnishing a portion of the Services.

9. Early Termination. In the event Services are cancelled or terminated by Customer prior to completion of the Service Term, Customer shall pay Bluebird an early termination fee equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Monthly Recurring Charge (MRC) due for months one through twelve (1-12), seventy-five percent (75%) for months thirteen through thirty-six (13-36) and fifty percent (50%) for the remaining MRC due for the affected Service's Service Term and any unpaid installation fees or Non-Recurring Charge (NRC), plus any costs and expenses incurred by Bluebird to terminate the Service. To the extent the Early Termination Fee is deemed to be liquidated damages, Customer acknowledges that the amount of damage Bluebird would suffer as a result of Customer's early termination of Services or Bluebird's termination for cause is difficult to estimate and that the Early Termination Fee reflects the Parties' reasonable estimation of the anticipated damages Bluebird may incur. In the event Customer terminates a Service at any time prior to the applicable Service Commencement Date, which is defined as the date on which Services are accepted, Customer shall pay Bluebird: (a) the cost of any third party-imposed termination liability or any third-party charges incurred by Bluebird as a result of such termination; (b) any NRC for installation and/or special construction; and (c) all other costs associated with provisioning the Service reasonably incurred by Bluebird prior to such termination.

10. Equipment Removal.

- a. Customer will cease use of the Service or Services set forth in the applicable Service Order immediately upon its expiration or termination. Within thirty (30) days of that date (or earlier at Customer's option), Customer will disconnect its provided equipment ("Equipment") from the Bluebird network or equipment and remove the Equipment from Bluebird's premises, as applicable. Disconnect and removal will be performed in a workmanlike manner and reasonable care to not disrupt, damage, or alter any part of the Bluebird network or premises or Bluebird's other customers equipment or space. Customer hereby consents and authorizes, without any other requirement, that Bluebird, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice, may apportion, sell, use, store, destroy, or otherwise dispose of Equipment not so disconnected or removed within such thirty (30) days after the termination or expiration date. Bluebird shall be entitled to keep any proceeds from the sale of such Equipment. Customer will pay all expenses and costs incurred in connection with Bluebird's disposition of the Equipment.
- b. Following the termination or expiration of an applicable Service listed on a Service Order, Customer shall reimburse Supplier the replacement value of any Supplier equipment when (i) Customer does not allow Supplier access to retrieve said equipment during Supplier's normal business hours or (ii) when said equipment is damaged, lost, or stolen prior to Supplier's retrieval or during return by Customer.

11. Warranties of Customer Customer represents and warrants that (i) it has full right and authority to enter into these Terms & Conditions and any Service Order; (ii) it has or will obtain all licenses, authorizations, and permits necessary to install and operate Customer's equipment; and (iii) neither it nor its customers will use the Services in any manner in violation of any applicable laws, or Bluebird's Acceptable Use Policy, and as publicly available on the Bluebird website at bluebirdnetwork.com. In the event Bluebird reasonably believes that a violation of any warranty has or will occur, Bluebird may take any action that it deems appropriate and reasonable under the circumstances to protect its systems, facilities, customers, and/or third parties.

Each party shall indemnify, defend, release, and hold harmless the other party, its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, and agents from Claims imposed upon either party by reason of damages to Property as a result of an intentional or grossly negligent act or omission by indemnifying party in connection with the Services. The term "Property" as used in this section shall include real, personal, tangible, and intangible property, including but not limited to data, proprietary information, intellectual property, trademarks, copyrights, patents, and knowledge. In the event any Claim is brought against a Party to be indemnified, that Party shall immediately notify the indemnifying Party of the Claim; in the event the indemnifying Party fails to assume the defense on time to avoid prejudicing the defense, the indemnified Party may defend the Claim, without loss of rights pursuant to this Section. Indemnifying Party shall pay all expenses and satisfy all judgments which may be incurred by or rendered against the indemnified Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnified Party will have the right, not to be exercised unreasonably, to reject any settlement or compromise that requires that it to admit wrongdoing or liability or subjects it to any ongoing affirmative obligation. The indemnified Party shall not be liable for any settlement of any Claim without its written consent. Neither Party shall be liable to the other for any losses or damages other than those listed in this Section.

13. Insurance In the event Customer equipment or personnel enters a Bluebird facility, then throughout the Term of any Service Order and any extension thereof, each party shall maintain and, upon written request, shall provide proof of adequate commercial general liability insurance covering all equipment, operations and work hereunder. In no event shall Bluebird's accumulative liability for all claims arising out of this these Terms & Conditions exceed the total amount paid by Customer to Bluebird within the one (1) month prior. Except as otherwise explicitly set forth in a Service Description or these Terms & Conditions, Bluebird shall not be liable under these Terms & Conditions for any failure or interruption in Services.
